Midtown Restaurant Offers Two Off-List Wines at Cut-Rate Costs Each Week Until Inventory is Gone

ATLANTA (August 16, 2010) - Beginning Monday, August 23, Spice Market, located inside the W Atlanta Midtown, is offering wines that are no longer on the restaurant's wine list for fabulously low prices in order to make room for new fall selections. Two different wines will be featured each week and both options will be a steal: one will be a wine that is rarely served by the glass and the other is priced at only $5 per glass. These wines can be ordered for one week only or until they are gone and offer an excellent opportunity to taste wines before committing to a full bottle. "Going, Going, Gone" will continue through the fall.

The special wine selections and pricing for the first four weeks of "Going, Going, Gone" are as follows:

· Week of August 23:

1. Cakebread Cellars Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley ($19/glass, $70/bottle)
2. Frei Brothers Chardonnay, Sonoma County ($5/glass, $19/bottle)

· Week of August 30
